

Chapter 7. Community Facilities Element

The most basic and essential services are provided through community facilities. Collectively known as community infrastructure, these facilities include the buildings, facilities, lands and services that support the public health, safety and welfare of Oconee County residents. These assets help shape daily living and work environments, provide the physical framework for the attraction of new businesses and employment opportunities, and provide a foundation for new growth and development. While many community facilities are provided or administered by the local government, others are offered by utilities, hospitals, school systems, and nonprofits.

The Community Facilities Element provides an inventory and assessment of the facilities and services available in Oconee County and its municipalities. The Element profiles community functions including: local government, water and sewer service, utilities, solid waste collection, fire and emergency medical services, police, education, health care, recreation, and libraries.

A. LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Governmental facilities house activities, persons, and records used in government operations - whether local, county, state or federal. The need for new or expanded public facilities is directly related to the growth of a community, since the addition of more people, more homes, and additional businesses and industries prompt the need for new and expanded governmental services. In some cases, increased services can be accommodated using existing space. However, in many cases, a substantial increase in the level and scope of services requires additional operational space or access points.

1. Oconee County

Oconee County was created in 1868 from the western half of Pickens Township. It is the only county in the State that borders on two other states – Georgia and North Carolina. The County is governed under a council-administrator form of government, with a five-member council elected by district. The County Administrator is appointed by the Oconee County Council. Management of the County is carried out through a number of departments, each headed by elected or appointed officials. Oconee County employs 497 full-time staff and 24 part-time employees.

Oconee County owns and maintains public properties throughout the County. The locations of major facilities owned by Oconee County are listed in Table 7-1.

2. Oconee County Municipalities

There are five municipalities in Oconee County, including the cities of Seneca, Walhalla, and Westminster, and the Towns of Salem and West Union. The City of Walhalla is the second largest municipality in terms of size and population and is the county seat of Oconee County. The City operates under the council/administrator form of government in which the City Council acts as the governing body, while the City Administrator is responsible for the day-to-day municipal operations. The Council is comprised of six members and the Mayor, all elected at-large.

The City of Seneca is Oconee County's largest municipality in both size and population. The City operates under the mayor/council form of government in which the Mayor has administrative powers, but the legislative function rests with the Council as a body. The City Council is comprised of eight members and the Mayor, all elected at-large.

The City of Westminster is the County's third largest City, only slightly smaller than Walhalla in area but with 1,780 fewer residents than the County seat. The City is governed by a council/administrator form of government, with the Mayor and six council members elected at-large.

The Town of West Union is the County's smallest municipality at less than one square mile in size, but is larger in population than the Town of Salem. The Town is governed by a mayor/council form of government, with the Mayor and three council members elected at-large.

The Town of Salem is the smallest in terms of population, but slightly larger in land area than West Union, although still less than one square mile in size. Salem is governed by a council/administrator form of government, with the Mayor and three council members elected at-large.

3. County Boards and Commissions

All jurisdictions in South Carolina that regulate land use, including Oconee County, must have a planning commission and a board of zoning appeals. Members of both bodies are appointed by the governing body (county, city, or town council) of the jurisdiction covered.

The duty of the planning commission is to develop and carry out a planning program for the physical, social, and economic growth, development and redevelopment of the community. The planning commission directs the development and update of the comprehensive plan and advises the governing body on the adoption of the plan. It also directs the preparation and update of land use regulations, including the zoning ordinance and land development regulations, and provides recommendations on the adoption of such regulations to the governing body. The Oconee County Planning Commission is comprised of seven members appointed by County Council.

The role of the Oconee County Board of Zoning Appeals (BZA) is quasi-judicial and includes considering appeals to determinations made by the Zoning Administrator and special exceptions. The Board also conducts hearings and rulings on variance applications from the requirements of the Zoning Ordinance. The Oconee County BZA includes seven members who are appointed by County Council.

B. UTILITIES

Like all communities, the vitality, growth and development pattern of Oconee County depends on a reliable and accessible network of public and private utilities and infrastructure. Utilities include the provision of water, wastewater disposal, solid waste disposal, and electricity. Not only are these services essential for individuals, they are also vital to businesses and service providers and impact the long-term growth and development potential of the County and its municipalities. The availability of water and sewer is a factor in the suitability of an area for future development. Ready access effects the location and affordability of residential development and is a key factor weighed by business and industry in site selection.

1. Water Service, Treatment and Distribution

Access to water service plays an important role in the development pattern of a community. Residential development outside of water service areas must utilize wells, adding to the initial cost of each residential unit. Many businesses and industries require the reliability and access to water that only a public utility can provide. Water service is provided to Oconee County residents by 22 community water systems, including seven public water systems and 15 private systems (Table 7-2 and Map 7-1). Community water systems serve the same population year-round. More individualized systems serve only for a portion of the year (such as a school) or serve transient populations (rest stops, campgrounds, gas stations, etc.).

Water treatment is primarily provided by four plant The City of Seneca Water Treatment Plant has a capacity of 20 million gallons per day (MGD), with an average daily demand of 6.5 MGD and current peak demand at 11 MGD. The Plant obtains its water from Lake Keowee. The City of Walhalla Coneross Creek Water Treatment Plant has a capacity of 3 MGD, an average daily demand of 1.9 MGD, and peak demand of 2.3 MGD. Water treated at the Plant is drawn from Coneross Creek. The City broke ground on a new water treatment facility in January 2019 that will have a capacity of 4 MGD. It will draw water from the Cane Creek branch of Lake Keowee, with completion anticipated in fall 2020. The City of Westminster Water Treatment Plant has a capacity of 4 MGD, with an approximate average daily demand of 2 MGD. The Plant draws water from the Chauga River. Pioneer Rural Water District's new Robert J. Stevenson Water Treatment Plant was completed in May 2019. The Plant draws water from Lake Hartwell, with an initial capacity of 2.5 MGD that is upgradeable to 5 MGD. Water treatment at a smaller scale is also provided by several individual systems.

2. Wastewater

The availability of sewer service is critical to supporting higher density residential development, educational and health care facilities, and the location or expansion of business and industry. Residential development outside of sewer service areas must rely on septic systems. State law requires that a parcel of land proposed for a septic system be capable of supporting proper operation of the individual system. Suitability criteria are based on factors including soil type, parcel size, and slope. For most businesses and industries, the availability of sewer service is requisite for new facility location.

Public wastewater treatment in Oconee County is provided by the Oconee Joint Regional Sewer Authority's (OJRSA) Coneross Creek Wastewater Treatment Plant (WWTP). The treatment capacity for the Plant is 7.8 million gallons per day (MGD), with an average daily flow of three MGD.

Public wastewater is managed by five providers, as illustrated in Map 7-2. The OJRSA owns and operates a wastewater conveyance system that includes approximately 60 miles of gravity sewer, 18 pump stations, 20 miles of force mains, and three permanent flow monitoring stations.

Map 7-2. Major Wastewater Providers

Source: Oconee County GIS Department, 2018

Seneca Light and Water (City of Seneca) collects wastewater from 5,745 customers through a system of 150 miles of sewer lines and 25 lift stations for treatment at the Coneross Creek WWTP. The City of Walhalla provides wastewater removal for its 2,000 customers through a system of five miles of gravity lines, four miles of force mains, and three lift stations. The City of Westminster conveys wastewater for its 1,091 customers through 28.5 miles of gravity sewer lines. The Town of West Union operates and maintains a small system that includes less than one-half mile of gravity sewer lines. Wastewater management is also provided by a number of private providers for residential developments in Oconee County.

3. Energy Sources

Electricity is the primary source of energy for Oconee County residents, followed by natural gas (Table 7-3). Two in three (66.9%) County homes are heated with electricity and 17.7% are heated with natural gas. More than nine percent of homes are heated with bottled, tank or LP gas and 4.1% use wood for heating.

a. Electrical Transmission and Distribution

Electrical power is provided to residents and businesses in Oconee County by four providers (Map 7-3). The Blue Ridge Electric Cooperative has the largest service area, including most of the unincorporated area in western and southern Oconee County. The Cooperative's service area encompasses more than 1,800 square miles that also include areas in Anderson, Greenville, Spartanburg, and Pickens counties. Blue Ridge provides service to 64,890 members and is South Carolina's fourth largest electric cooperative (Blue Ridge Electric Cooperative, 2019).

Duke Energy provides electric service to a substantial area of Oconee County that includes the greater Walhalla and West Union area that stretches north from Seneca along Lake Keowee to Lake Jocassee and includes the northernmost area of the County. Duke Energy is one of the largest electric power companies in the United States, serving electricity to 7.6 million electric retail customers in six states. Duke Energy plants that provide electricity to customers in Oconee County and neighboring areas include the Oconee Nuclear Station, the Keowee Hydro Station, and the Jocassee and Bad Creek Pumped-storage Generating Stations. Of particular note is the Oconee Nuclear Station, one of the nation's largest nuclear plants with a generating capacity of 2.6 million kilowatts – enough to power 1.9 million homes.

Seneca Light and Water provides electricity to 6,900 customer meters within the City of Seneca and adjoining areas (Seneca Light and Water, 2019). The City purchases wholesale electricity from Santee Cooper.

The City of Westminster provides electricity to 1,501 customers within the City of Westminster and some adjoining areas. The City annually distributes approximately 30 megawatts of energy obtained through Piedmont Municipal Power Agency, a joint action agency that includes nine other cities that collectively own 25% of the output of Unit 2 at the Catawba Nuclear Station in York County, South Carolina.

b. Natural Gas

Fort Hill Natural Gas Authority is the sole provider of natural gas in Oconee County. The Authority was established by the South Carolina Legislature in 1952 to serve the municipalities and outlying areas of Oconee and Pickens Counties and portions of Anderson County (Fort Hill Natural Gas Authority, 2019). Fort Hill is one of four non-profit, tax-exempt natural gas authorities in the State. The Authority purchases natural gas on the open market for resale to its approximately 40,000 residential, commercial, and industrial customers. Purchased gas is transported to Fort Hill from various sources via interconnects with Williams Gas Pipeline in Anderson County.

4. Internet

High-speed internet service is available within Oconee County from a number of providers including AT&T, Charter Spectrum, Northland Communications, Onetone Telecom, Viasat Internet, and HughesNet. In addition, mobile wireless services are available in the Oconee area from a wide range of carriers including AT&T, Sprint, T-Mobile, and Verizon. A number of local businesses and public facilities also have wireless internet (Wi-Fi) connection capabilities for their customers and employees, including the Oconee County Library and local businesses, restaurants, and motels.

On August 18, 2010, Oconee County received $9.6M in Federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act funding to construct a 250-mile broadband fiber optic network under the project name Fiber Optics Creating Unified Solutions (FOCUS). The first phase of the project set out to support the School District of Oconee County, emergency services, E-911 service, and local, state, and federal government locations. The second phase of the FOCUS project focused on connecting business and residential customers. However, in 2012 South Carolina legislative bill H3508 was enacted, requiring FOCUS to modify the original business model used to sell service to customers. FOCUS instead entered into a wholesale arrangement with local Internet Services Providers to provide services to customers. In the 3rd and final phase of the FOCUS project, Oconee County issued an RFP to lease the network out to an operator to maintain and grow the network. OneTone Telecom, Inc., was awarded the contract and continues to maintain the network. The company has expanded the network to 330 miles, adding thousands of customers.

5. Solid Waste

The Oconee County Solid Waste Complex on Wells Highway in Seneca houses the main office, a material recovery facility for recyclables, and a transfer station for loading shipments of municipal solid waste for landfill disposal. Because Oconee County does not operate an active landfill, all municipal solid waste is transported to the Waste Management landfill in Homer, Georgia. However, two closed landfills in the County are managed and monitored.

Oconee County also operates a Class 2 Construction and Demolition (C&D) landfill, mulching facility for storage and sale of ground yard waste, and a concrete, block and asphalt grinding operation located across from the Solid Waste Complex on Wells Highway.

While the County does not provide solid waste collection, it operates eleven manned collection and recycling centers located throughout the County (Map 7-4) and two unmanned centers in the cities of Westminster and Walhalla. The recycling centers are for household trash and recyclables only and do not accept commercial waste. Total managed waste in 2018 was 82,056 tons, including 43,591 tons of waste through the transfer station and 3,355 tons of recyclables (Oconee County Budget Document, 2018-2019). The Solid Waste Department has 35 full-time positions and one part-time position, including administration, equipment operators, a recycling coordinator/educator, and clerks.

Map 7-4. Solid Waste Collection and Recycling Stations and C&D Landfill

Source: Oconee County GIS Department, 2018

Because collection and recycling centers 2, 4, 5, and 6 are located in the major growth areas, Solid Waste Department staff anticipates the need for future expansion to help alleviate traffic, expedite drop-off, and better facilitate recycling and disposal services. The need to upgrade or expand the County's transfer station to accommodate an increased waste stream is also expected within the next three to five years.

C. EDUCATION

Education is a lifelong process that consists of two components. The first is a high quality foundation of basic education through the PK-12 system that is followed by an on-going individualized pathway of higher education and advanced career training opportunities. Communities that promote a philosophy of lifelong learning among residents are better positioned to successfully compete in a global economy. Access to advanced workforce training programs is an integral component of community and individual economic sustainability.

The Oconee Campus of Tri-County Technical College (TCTC) provides County residents with a greater level of access to workforce development programs, facilities, and advanced training and continuing education opportunities. In addition, a number of public and private postsecondary institutions are located within commuting distance for County residents, including Clemson University, Southern Wesleyan University, and Anderson University. The locations of PK-12 schools and the Tri-County Technical College campus are shown on Map 7-5 and profiled in the following sections, along with private schools.

1. School District of Oconee County

The Oconee County School District provides educational services to 10,495 students (S.C. Dept. of Education, 2019), with an annual budget that exceeds $107 million (School District of Oconee County, Fast Facts, 2019). As the largest employer in the County, the District employs 1,591 administrators, teachers and support staff. South Carolina Department of Education headcount data for 2018-2019 indicate the District has the 22nd largest enrollment among the State's 83 districts. The District spent an annual average of $11,069 per pupil in school year 2017-2018. The School District operates ten elementary schools, three middle schools, and three high schools (Table 7-4 and Map 7-5).

In addition to these schools, the District's Hamilton Career Center offers more than 20 career and technology education programs that support over 1,000 students from the District's three high schools as they prepare for transition to institutions of higher education or skilled careers. A new Career Center is planned for co-location in the Oconee County Industry and Technology Park with the new Tri-County Technical College Oconee Campus. Development of the Career Center is a cooperative effort between the School District, Oconee County, businesses, industries, and Tri-County Technical College and is intended to match the needs of the County's current and potential industries.

The District's Oconee Academy is an alternative program for middle and high school students who have been identified as interfering with the learning of other class members and/or refusing to follow the District's Discipline Code. Enrollment is decided by the administration of the student's home school and the Director of Student Services. Students normally attend the program for a minimum of one semester, with transportation and lunch provided. The District also offers Adult Education in the form of a diploma program, High School Equivalency (HSED) classes, literacy programs, and career readiness instruction and testing.

2. Private Schools

There are a number of private schools in Oconee County that range in size from 158 pupils at the Oconee Christian Academy to fewer than ten students at the Poplar Springs Adventist School and New Haven Christian School (Table 7-5). These non-public enrollment numbers do not include the homeschooled students in the County.

3. Tri-County Technical College

Established in 1962, Tri-County Technical College (TCTC) has the fifth largest enrollment among the 16 two-year colleges that comprise the South Carolina Technical Education System. The College serves its three-county service area from its main campus in Pendleton and through four satellite campuses in Anderson (Anderson), Oconee (Westminster), and Pickens (Pendleton and Easley) Counties. The Oconee County campus opened as TCTC's newest campus in 2018. The campus includes a new $5.5 million, 37,000 square foot building. Program offerings at the campus support manufacturing in the region and also include university studies and transfer certificates, business administration, and a high school dual credit program with the School District.

The College enrolls more than 6,000 students annually in 70 associate degree, diploma, and certificate programs (TCHC, 2019). The average age of TCTC students is 22.1 years, with more than 55% of students attending full time. Oconee County residents comprise more than 14% of the total TCTC enrollment.

D. LIBRARIES

The Oconee County Public Library was established in 1948 in Walhalla, with subsequent branches open in Westminster in 1950, Salem in 1952, and Seneca in 1953. New facilities were built for the Walhalla and Westminster branches in 1979 and an expansion of the Seneca branch was completed when the library joined the County system in 1983. The Salem branch began sharing space with the Salem Town Hall in 1981. The Library also provides bookmobile service to communities that are more than 1.5 miles from a public library facility. Table 7-6 lists the current Library locations and sizes.

The Walhalla Library serves as the headquarters and main branch and is the largest facility in the Oconee County Public Library system. The system employs 19 full-time and 12 part-time workers. The collection includes 147,047 books, 4,401 audio books, 207 print periodicals, and 11,218 DVDs. Also included are downloadable audio books, e-books, and magazines. Annual visits to all four branches totaled nearly 225,160 in 2018, with a total circulation of 317,126. Total collection uses at the Oconee County Public Library ranked 14th highest and the number of cardholders ranked 18th highest among South Carolina's 42 public libraries in 2017.

The main library and its branch locations are an important resource for County residents who lack personal access to a computer and internet. The Library's 33 public computers were used by County residents more than 25,740 times in 2018, while many others used the Library's Wi-Fi access to the internet with their personal devices.

E. PUBLIC SAFETY

A safe and secure environment that projects a climate of health, vitality and community spirit among residents of all ages is integral to building a strong community. The personnel, facilities, equipment, and services dedicated to protecting the safety and property of the public are among the most essential community resources.

1. Oconee County Emergency Services

Oconee County Emergency Services is headquartered on Emergency Lane in Westminster and employs 35 full-time staff, including the fire chief; four deputy chiefs - Emergency Manager, Emergency Medical Director, Fire Marshal, and Special Teams Coordinator; training officer; shift supervisors; firefighters; radiological operations planner; administrative staff; a logistics technician; and seven part-time employees. A team of 620 dedicated volunteers provide day-to-day service delivery across Oconee County, supported by career personnel assigned to each station. The Emergency Services team is responsible for fire protection, medical first response, Hazardous Materials mitigation, technical rescue, SCUBA Dive Rescue, emergency management and public safety education.

a. Emergency Management

Although rare in occurrence, Oconee County is vulnerable to various natural and technological hazards. Advance planning and preparation for such emergencies is essential in preparing community leaders, response staff, and the general public to make rapid and informed decisions that will save lives and quickly restore infrastructure and services when manmade or natural disaster strikes. The County's Emergency Management (EM) team provides planning, training, and event coordination between municipal, county, and state agencies for manmade and natural disaster events. A great deal of planning and training is committed to support Duke Energy's Oconee Nuclear Station emergency response plan. The EM staff continuously provides public information and support for special events and incidents as they occur including storms, ice and snow events, and public health concerns.

b. Special Teams

Specialized response services in Oconee County are provided through three teams: Dive, Special Rescue, and Hazardous Materials (Hazmat). Each of these teams is comprised of volunteers with specialized training on equipment needed to effectively deal with situations that may occur. Examples of specialized skills used by these teams include high-angle rescue, wilderness search, confined search, dive rescue, and swift-water rescue. Demand for these services is increasing as the popularity of boating, climbing, hiking, and camping in the remote areas of the County continues to grow.

c. Fire Service

As one of the most fundamental and valuable services provided by local government, fire protection and prevention is of vital importance to every citizen and visitor in Oconee County. There are 18 fire districts in Oconee County, including 14 all-volunteer fire departments, four municipal departments, and the Keowee Fire Special Tax District (Map 7-6). All departments operate under a countywide automatic aid agreement to ensure proper responses to each incident, regardless of the location.

The Oconee County Fire Division is headquartered on Emergency Lane in Westminster and employs 35 full-time staff, including the fire chief, deputy fire chief, fire marshal, training officer, captains, firefighters, radiological operations planner, and administrative staff, and seven part-time employees (Oconee County, SC Budget Document 2018-2019). While the provision of adequate, state-of-the-art firefighting equipment and trained personnel is vital to the preservation of life and property, it also significantly impacts the cost of individual fire insurance premiums in a community. Insurance companies use a classification system provided by the Insurance Services Office, Inc. (ISO) to determine the level of fire protection for each home they insure. Classifications range from 1 to 10, with Class 1 representing the best public protection and Class 10 indicating no recognized protection. Factors that contribute to the classification assignment include the effectiveness of the fire department in receiving and dispatching fire alarms, the number of fire stations, the availability and amount of water needed to fight fires, training provided to local fire fighters, maintenance and testing of equipment, and the distribution of fire stations and service throughout the community. Areas served by municipal or other water services benefit from lower ISO ratings and ultimately, lower insurance ratings.

ISO ratings in Oconee County are 2 in Walhalla, Seneca, and Westminster; 3 in the Keowee Fire Special Tax District, 4 in Salem, and 4 in the unincorporated areas of the County. These ratings are for areas within five road miles of a fire station, which in Oconee County includes approximately 97% of all homes and businesses (Oconee County Fire Division, 2019). ISO ratings for areas beyond five miles of a fire station are higher, with these areas in the unincorporated areas of the County rated 10.

There are seven index offenses: murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, breaking and entering, motor vehicle theft, larceny, and arson. Index offenses are categorized either as violent crimes (murder, sexual battery, robbery and aggravated assault) or property crimes (breaking and entering, motor vehicle theft, larceny, and arson). Violent crimes account for 8.8% of all index crimes in the County – lower than the 2016 percentage of 9.5%. The most prevalent violent crime in the County was aggravated assault, accounting for 70% of violent crimes. Only four murders were reported in Oconee County in 2017. Nearly 70% of property crimes and 63.4% of all index crimes were categorized as larceny, which is the unlawful taking of property and includes offenses such as shoplifting, pocket-picking, purse snatching, and thefts from motor vehicles and of motor vehicle parts.

The index crime rate (rate per 10,000 residents) in Oconee County is lower than the statewide rates for similar crimes, with the exception of arson, which is slightly higher. The overall index crime rate for violent crimes in the County is nearly half that of the State rate.

F. HEALTH CARE

Access to quality health care is an essential component of community well-being. Building a healthy community ensures an acceptable quality of life for all residents and the prevention of many costly problems that inhibit the realization of full individual and community potential. The health care system encompasses a broad continuum of care that begins with preventative care and progresses through end-of-life care. Public health is negatively impacted when service gaps are present in this continuum. The number of practicing health professionals serving Oconee County is detailed in Table 7-8.

The locations of Oconee Memorial Hospital – Prisma Health Upstate, EMS, rescue stations, and the Rosa Clark Free Health Clinic are shown in Map 7-8. These and additional health care services are profiled in the following sections.

The facility, which is scheduled to open in 2020, is intended to house six faculty and 18 residents by 2022. The three-year program seeks to alleviate the shortage of doctors by providing training for primary care in a rural-based practice. Evidence cited by Prisma Health Upstate indicates that physicians tend to stay and practice in the community where they receive residency training

3. Services for the Elderly

The nation's aging population affects every segment of the social, political, and economic landscape, as significant changes in living patterns and conditions often accompany the aging process. The health and mobility of senior residents is of growing interest due to implications for public policy, healthcare, and long-term care costs. The increasing number of frail elderly is accompanied by a growing demand for home care and for institutional and community-based acute care and long-term care. The segment of the population suffering from dementia and Alzheimer's disease will continue to rise in the coming decades, while the costs of care will rise well above current levels. The financial and time demands on informal family and friend caregivers will also continue to rise. These changing responsibilities will shape housing, employment, and support service needs at the local level, where Oconee County residents aged 65 or older now comprise 21.5% of the population. This is higher than the 15.8% of individuals in this age group statewide (American Community Survey 2013-2017).

a. Senior Services

Most aging services are federally funded through the 1965 Older Americans Act. To that end, the Lieutenant Governor's Office on Aging has divided the State into ten planning and service districts. The Appalachian Regional Council of Governments (ACOG) is the designated Area Agency on Aging (AAA) and Aging and Disabilities Resource Center (ADRC) for Anderson, Cherokee, Greenville, Oconee, Pickens, and Spartanburg counties. The role of the AAA is to plan, coordinate, administer, and assess a comprehensive and coordinated system of quality support services for older citizens. ACOG provides information, referrals, and assistance to older adults and caregivers, and operates a number of related programs. As an ADRC, they subcontract with local service providers for the delivery of services at the local level. Among the services given funding priority are transportation, adult day care, in-home and group respite care, congregate dining, home-delivered meals, insurance counseling, wellness and prevention, information and assistance, outreach, physical fitness, health promotion, and nutrition education and screening.

Senior Solutions is the leading provider of services to senior citizens in Oconee County. Originally known as the Anderson-Oconee Council on Aging, Senior Solutions is a non-profit agency that has served the needs of County seniors since 1977. The Oconee Senior Center on Perry Avenue in Seneca is open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and offers games, a computer lab, library, a fitness center, and an outdoor walking track. Participants have access to exercise, dance, and educational classes and opportunities for day and overnight trips. Transportation is available to and from the facility. Lunch is provided daily to participants. Senior Solutions also provides home-delivered meals in Oconee County for persons 60 years of age and older who are ill and incapacitated, unable to leave home unassisted except for essential appointments, unable to purchase or prepare food, or do not have someone in the home who is able to prepare meals on a daily basis.

b. Nursing Homes and Assisted Living Facilities

As detailed in the Housing Element, there are two nursing homes in Oconee County. The Lila Doyle facility at Oconee Medical Center in Seneca provides 120 beds and the Seneca Health and Rehabilitation Center provides 252 beds. The County has six assisted living facilities providing a total of 380 beds, with six of the facilities in Seneca and one in West Union (Table 3-22).

4. Public Health

The Oconee County Public Health Department is located on North Townville Street in the City of Seneca and is a full service location for the S.C. Department of Health and Environmental Control. The Department provides a range of health-related services including immunizations, family planning, pregnancy testing, nurse-family partnerships for first-time moms, postpartum/newborn home visits, services for children and teens with special health care needs, immunizations, tuberculosis testing and treatment, testing for sexually transmitted diseases, and teen education and counseling. The Department also administers the Women, Infants and Children (WIC) program that provides food products, health screenings, and health information for women, infants, and children five years of age or younger in qualified families.

5. Rosa Clark Free Medical Clinic

The Rosa Clark Free Medical Clinic on Memorial Drive in Seneca has provided quality, affordable healthcare services since 1982 for area residents who are unable to pay physician costs for such services and for those who receive Medicaid or Medicare. The Clinic provides primary and preventative care, mental health services, substance abuse screening and prevention, patient education, pharmaceutical services, supplemental nutrition assistance program (SNAP), and health screenings. The Clinic also provides referral services for specialty care as needed. A second location on South Oak Street serves as a dental clinic. The Clinic hours of operation are 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

G. PARKS AND RECREATION

The provision of quality recreational activities and facilities benefits community residents of all ages. Parks and recreation facilities are valuable tools in showcasing the natural beauty of a community, in preserving open space, in attracting visitors, and in providing healthy and safe recreational options for residents.

Oconee County residents and visitors are fortunate to have access to numerous and diverse opportunities for recreation that include state parks, abundant water resources, nature and hiking trails, and a number of parks and recreation facilities. As detailed in the Natural Resources Element, recreational opportunities in the County are particularly plentiful for outdoor enthusiasts. In addition to the scenic Chattooga and Tugaloo rivers, lakes Hartwell, Keowee, and Jocassee provide miles of shoreline, a number of public and commercial boat landings, and nearly unlimited opportunities for fishing and water sports. Recreation resources in Oconee County are detailed in the following sections and in Table 7-10, with locations of major recreation facilities provided in Map 7-9.
